

Aleks KURGVEL

13 Dec.1960.

To: Security Officer.
Subject: Soviet Propaganda Received.

On 10th December my wife, Mrs Salme Kurgvel, received a letter of which the envelope is here attached.

The envelope carries the senders address: "Berlin NW 63 Postschliessfach 120". The envelope contained one copy of the newspaper "Tõe Hääli" (Voice of Truth) in Estonian language, issue No.41 (229), dated November 1960. The newspaper carries a note according to which it is being published by "Kaasmaalaste Kultuursidemete Arendamise ja Kodumaale Tagasipöördumise Komitee" (the Committee for Development of Cultural Liens with the Country-men and for Return to Homeland).

As there are probably thousands of copies of this Soviet newspaper being sent to the U.S.A. and the Authorities interested certainly have enough copies of it, I intend to keep this copy with the aim of helping the local Estonian anti-communist organizations by giving them some suggestions which they could use in their work. I have been asked for such help repeatedly and I have helped them without my name being mentioned in their work papers..

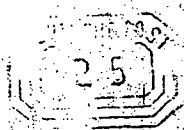

It could be of interest to some Authorities to know that the U.S.Post lets such letters through again although my wife, like many other people, had years ago requested the Post Office in New York not to deliver such letters. The above mentioned copy was the first to be delivered on our address after the non-delivery request was made.

Attached: One envelope.
